1 UNIVERSITY COMMUNICATIONS OPT IN/OUT (CORRECTION)

Further to this item in the previous Circular, we wish to clarify that, according to TISC's formal Privacy Policy, applicants should only receive direct marketing information from universities for which they have listed a preference. The item about opting in or out should read as follows:

One of the questions in the TISC applications asks whether or not students wish to receive marketing and recruitment communications from the universities. If they opt in, they may receive recruitment communications from any university for which they have listed a preference. If they opt out, universities should only contact them if they need to provide or request information directly relating to the assessment of preferences for their institution. Applicants may change their communication preference at any time by emailing privacy@tisc.edu.au.

2 EARLY OFFERS

We have recently published information on our website regarding the early conditional offers being made by universities this year, in an effort to reduce confusion for students.

The information is available at: <http://www.tisc.edu.au/static/guide/early-offers.tisc>. There is also a link to the information from the TISC homepage.

Students should be aware that the early offers have conditions that must be met for the offer to be confirmed in the December offer round.

TISC also wants to reassure students that, even if they request, receive and accept an early offer, they are free to change their mind at any time before the major offer rounds in December and January. It is important that students realise that the TISC system is designed to help them keep their options open as long as possible, should they wish to do so.
